Dear Parents/Carers,

On Friday 18th November, Holmleigh will be taking part in the BBC Children in Need campaign. If children are happy to, they can come to school in or with their pyjamas, with a donation of £1.

Due to the cold weather, we are asking children to cover up and keep warm by wearing something underneath their pyjamas (if they choose to wear them to school).

The money we raise will make a huge difference to the lives of children right here in the UK.

Thank you for your support,
Miss Boateng
