Nursery Newsletter Autumn 2 2024

Brown Bear, Brown Bear what do you see?

Over the last 6 weeks, the nursery have thoroughly explored and internalized this book. The nursery shed was turned into a bear hut and children were invited to go on a bear hunt looking for pictures of lost bears. The class published a large book and made their words come alive! Each child drew their own story map and created a new version of the story. They retold their stories with actions.

Snip... snip...snip!

Every week, the nursery have an adult led scissor skills activity which helps them to learn all about scissors and understand why they need to be used safely. The nursery are learning to push forward to cut straight and curved lines.

Polly Put the kettle On

During the daily nursery rhyme time the nursery have been learning about Polly and Sukey. They explored making tea in the water tray with sieves and funnels. This led to tasting different types of tea.

The nursery have been learning how to butter a slice of bread. The nursery spoke about their heart and why eating too much butter is not good for their bodies. They learnt words to help them talk about the experience such as; crust, slice, spread, sharp, fats and healthy.
